Exhibitions during the conference

Photography Exhibition by Mina Schmidt/Reversed Magazine

Mina Schmidt has been a freelance journalist and photographer for eight years, working primarily for independent magazines. During this time, she has produced various photo essays and reportages focusing on fair and sustainable supply chains. Through Reversed Magazine, one of her editorial priorities is to journalistically contextualize supply chains and critically examine dominant narratives about regulation, bureaucracy, and corporate responsibility.

„Common Ground: From Extraction to Electrification“ by Paul Mengeling

Paul Mengeling's book is a visual interrogation of the past and futures of mineral extraction in four European regions in the context of the rush for lithium.
